DURHAM, NH – Hillary Clinton remains the heavy favorite among New Hampshire Democrats for the 2016 New Hampshire Primary. There is no clear frontrunner among Republicans but a few names are rising to the top. The great majority of voters have not decided who they will support.

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and seven (507) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed by landline and cellular telephone between April 4 and April 9, 2013. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.4 percent. Included in the sample were 171 likely 2016 Republican Primary voters (margin of sampling error +/- 7.5%) and 188 likely 2016 Democratic Primary voters (margin of sampling error +/- 7.1%).
